

SPACES DISCUSSED IN MONEY, SPACE AND CINEMA

Fiscal space generated by financial capitalism;

Geopolitical space of global monetary policy as enacted and effected by the IMF and related bodies;

Space of the Anthropocene, a hybrid space derived from collisions of capital and ecology;

Space of the industrial-military complex;

The poetic space of cinema;

The geopolitical space of colonialism;

Spaces of racist exclusion;

The space of revolution;

The boundary space of the Mediterranean Sea;

The network of uneventful spaces that make up the beauty and the horror of human life;

The space of the 'camp' generated by the growing exclusions of capitalist policy;

The space between the viewer and the screen.
